The Springs Living Enters Into Agreement with Grayco, LLC

The Springs Living is pleased to announce that they have entered into an agreement with Grayco, LLC to acquire three greater Portland area senior living retirement communities and one in The Dalles. Grayco manages Carman Oaks in Lake Oswego, OR; Cedar Creek in Sherwood, OR; The Wilsonville in Wilsonville, OR; and Mill Creek Point in The Dalles, OR.

“The Springs Living was chosen from a competitive field of contenders and we are very pleased to have been the company that Grayco selected to continue their service to senior residents in the years to come,” said Fee Stubblefield, President and Founder of The Springs Living, LLC.

Grayco began developing assisted living facilities in the mid 1990’s, creating thriving communities where senior residents enjoy a high quality of life. “We wanted to find a local Oregon company that focuses on quality the same way as our company has. Our employees take great pride in serving our residents and we wanted to make sure that this commitment to service will continue into the future”, commented Craig Smith, Principal at Grayco, LLC. “We look forward to having our legacy continue through The Springs Living”.

The Springs Living, based in McMinnville, OR, began in 1996 with the mission of creating warm and comfortable senior communities that enhance the lives of their residents. The Springs employees are passionate about helping residents live their lives and are excited to expand that effort. “The addition of Grayco’s communities to our Springs family will continue to promote our mission of changing the way people think, feel and experience senior housing”, says Stubblefield.

The Springs Living currently owns and operates six retirement communities; The Springs at Tanasbourne in Hillsboro, OR; The Springs at Sunnyview and The Woods at Willowcreek in Salem, OR; The Springs at Clackamas Woods in Milwaukie, OR; The Springs at Whitefish in Whitefish, MT; and The Springs at Missoula in Missoula, MT.
