A-1 Self Storage contributes to the Casa Cornelia Law Center in San Diego, CA in support of their Detained Unaccompanied Children Program

Casa Cornelia Law Center has a commitment to represent every detained unaccompanied child in San Diego.

San Diego, CA– February 10, 2009– A-1 Self Storage, the premier provider of self storage in San Diego, CA, today announced their support of Casa Cornelia Law Center’s “Detained Unaccompanied Children Program.”

“This is an important program because minors entering the US are at a significant risk of deprivation” said an A-1 Self Storage representative. “The Detained Unaccompanied Children Program ensures that every unaccompanied detained child goes to court represented by an attorney. As many of our A-1 Self Storage locations are within minutes of the Mexican-American border, we understand the importance of this program within our community.”

Casa Cornelia Law Center provides pro bono legal council to immigrants seeking asylum and citizenship of the United States. A-1 Self Storage has supported their efforts since 2003.

“A-1 Self Storage is proud to support this program. We understand the difficulties that these children face, being detained and unaccompanied in a foreign country” said Brian Caster, President and CEO of A-1 Self Storage. “We feel it is important to support minors who are unaccompanied by their parent or legal guardian to obtain legal representation and full protection afforded under U.S. Law.”
