

Mary Jo Fail – a Fellowship Square Phoenix resident since 1999

About eleven years ago, my husband and I had a heart to heart discussion about what we should do at our age in the way of Senior Living apartments. We began our search, looking at several facilities before coming to Fellowship Square Phoenix. We were given a tour, with a complimentary lunch. After the tour we looked at each other and agreed this was THE place to spend the rest of our lives. There would be no more utility bills except the phone and no more unexpected repair bills to surprise us.

We waited for a garden home for a year and four months due to the lengthy wait list and were not disappointed. Our dining room is cheerful and the food is very good. One feature that is so appreciated is the twice monthly housekeeping. When a new resident moves in the apartment is immaculate and freshly painted, etc. Our residents are friendly but do not intrude on our privacy. There are a lot of activities to participate in if we chose to; it is a choice, not mandatory. The buses are most convenient to take us to the grocery store, doctor appointments, out to breakfast and lunch. Upon occasion short trips are planned and even over night trips at times. When the time comes there is assisted living on the premises as well as the nursing center. We have a security service and maintenance staff that makes us feel safe and taken care of.
