Organizing expert to offer downsizing series at Touchmark at Fairway Village

VANCOUVER, Wash. — Downsizing from large homes with decades of belongings to retirement living can be a challenge. Vicki Norris, a professional organizer and speaker, will offer a yearlong Lunch 'n Learn series at Touchmark at Fairway Village, starting Wednesday, April 9.

The programs start at 12:30 p.m. and include lunch, available for $10. Norris will begin speaking at 1:15, and people can opt to sign up for just the presentation. There is no charge to attend her presentation.

The April 9 topic is “Secrets to Ordering Your Life.” Norris will share why people must change their thinking before they can change their behavior, and why organizing is a means and not an end.

Seating is limited, and individuals must call 360-254-2866 to register. Those signing up for all five sessions will receive a complimentary copy of Norris’s first book, “Reclaim Your Life and Get Organized for Good.”

All presentations are held on Wednesday; the remaining dates and topics are:

- May 14: “In Order to Move”
- July 9: “Financial Paperwork”
- Sept. 10” “Reclaim Your Health”
- Nov. 12: “Discover Your Purpose”

Norris has designed the series specifically for older adults and those looking to downsize. It is offered exclusively at Touchmark.

President of Restoring Order®, Norris and her team have helped individuals and businesses organize their lives, homes and offices since 1999. She is widely recognized from her seven years as the professional organizing expert on KATU’s “AM Northwest” and on HGTV’s “Mission: Organization.” She is sought nationally for interviews and speaking engagements.
