

Santaluz Senior Living Begins Development

CARLSBAD, CA (January 13, 2015)--- Integral Senior Living (ISL), a leader in managing senior living communities, is pleased to announce a new community it is managing will soon be breaking ground. Aldea Partners is redefining retirement living with Santaluz Senior Living, a new Assisted Living and Memory Care community in San Diego, CA. Located just outside of the community of Rancho Santa Fe, the project anticipates breaking ground mid 2015.

“We are looking forward to getting started on Santaluz Senior Living, a community that represents the best care offered in Assisted Living and Memory Care for residents. Our team has designed a spectacular Tuscan farmhouse style community and we are eager to be working with ISL, a proven management company that brings incredible talent and expertise to Santaluz,” said Carl Gustafson, president of Aldea Partners.

Santaluz represents a new standard in senior living for the San Diego area where residents can enjoy an active and healthy lifestyle. Upon completion Santaluz will have 64 residences with 47 assisted living units and 17 memory care units.

“Santaluz recognizes the changing needs of our aging population which is reflected in every aspect of this new community-- from how it is built to the extensive services and amenities that will be offered to residents. We are pleased to have the opportunity to manage Santaluz and to welcome residents to a community they will love to call home,” said Collette Valentine, CEO/COO for Integral Senior Living.

Santaluz is located at the intersection of Via Inez and Via Fiesta in San Diego.
