Antique appraisal show at Touchmark Feb. 26

EDMOND, Okla. — An antique appraisal show is coming to Edmond's Touchmark at Coffee Creek retirement community on Thursday, Feb. 26, providing Oklahomans the opportunity to discover the value of their family heirlooms or even garage-sale finds.

Appraiser Matt McNeal from McNeal Liquidations will be appraising treasured items 2-3 p.m. Only one tabletop item per person will be appraised during the show. No stamps, coins, instruments or stones over half a carat will be appraised.

Deadline to RSVP for the event is Feb. 25. Call 405-340-1975. Touchmark at Coffee Creek is located at 2801 Shortgrass Road in Edmond.

McNeill is an ISA Board Certified Appraiser of Personal Property, the highest professional designation conferred by The International Society of Appraisers. His weekly appearance on KFOR Channel 4 is called "Trash or Treasure."

"This is a great opportunity for people to stop guessing about the value of an antique that has been handed down through the generations," says Touchmark Life Enrichment/Wellness Director Morgan Fitzgerald. "Sign up and bring it to Touchmark's antique appraisal show and uncover its true value."

A full-service retirement community, Touchmark at Coffee Creek offers a wide range of homes and lifestyle options and is located just off Covell. Touchmark is part of the Coffee Creek 638-acre planned residential development, which includes a golf course, recreational centers and walking and biking trails for Coffee Creek homeowners.
