Touchmark Car Show benefits Wyakin Warrior Foundation

MERIDIAN, Idaho – Touchmark at Meadow Lake Village Executive Director Matthew Hoskin recently presented a check to Wyakin Warrior Foundation. More than $850 was raised from the Touchmark Classic Car Show held on Saturday, June 25 with all proceeds benefiting the Foundation.

Touchmark, a full-service retirement community, hosted more than 50 classic cars for an afternoon of intergenerational family entertainment. Funds were generated through a barbecue lunch and ticket sales for prize drawings. The Wyakin Warrior Foundation is a Boise nonprofit organization providing a full-spectrum educational and professional development program for severely wounded, injured, or ill post 9/11 veterans.
