Touchmark invites public to learn about housing options for seniors

BISMARCK, N.D. —Nadine Privratsky, sales and marketing manager at Touchmark, will be giving a presentation called “Discover What’s Out There” at Touchmark on West Century on Thursday, Sept. 10, at noon.

The presentation will cover what housing and personal service options are available for older adults in the Bismarck-Mandan area.

“This is a very important decision in people’s lives, and there are many options to consider,” says Privratsky. “This presentation will discuss those options and the various benefits for individuals or their loved ones.”

Lunch will be served, and the public is invited to attend this event at Touchmark, located at 1000 West Century Avenue. There is no charge, but an RSVP is required by Tuesday, Sept. 8, due to limited seating. Reserve a seat by calling 701-323-7000.
