Touchmark appoints Health Services director

BEND, Ore. — Angela Stewart is the Health Services director at Touchmark at Mt. Bachelor Village and oversees all health services within the retirement community including home care, residential care and memory care. She replaces Scott Neil, who assumed the role of executive director.

Stewart joined Touchmark in 2012 at the Life Enrichment/Wellness director and a year later assumed the role of Memory Care administrator. Prior to Touchmark, her breadth of experience includes university admissions counselor, coach, activity director and ski instructor.

Stewart earned a master's degree in adult education with a gerontology emphasis from the University of Wyoming. She also holds two bachelor degrees from Sterling College: a Bachelor of Science in education and Bachelor of Arts in art and design. She is a Certified Best Friends™ Master Trainer and Certified Cognitive Stimulation Instructor.
