STAR PERFORMANCE

Andy and Susan Davis
Wednesday, November 18th • 7:15 p.m.

Susan Davis began her career as lead singer and choreographer of the award-winning group, Sunshine Express. She traveled Europe, visited our troops as a member of the USO and performed alongside such greats as Minnie Pearl, Ben Vereen and the Beach Boys. As a solo artist, Susan has created her own unique style of cabaret performing by embracing each character and telling a story with emotion and impeccable vocal acuity. Susan has been "wowing" audiences all over the world as a featured singer and dancer on cruise ships, in concert halls and on USO tours. Her range goes from the gritty sounds of rock-n-roll to the best of the soprano standards and romantic Broadway roles.

Andy Davis began his career on the boards of the Broadway Theater. In musicals, he has portrayed such characters as Tevye, Phantom of the Opera, and Sweeny Todd. Andy has also performed various Shakespeare and classical theater roles. His cabaret act has taken him around the world.

The magic happened while performing on the same cruise ship, Andy and Susan met, fell in love and later married. It was inevitable that they would perform together. Their shows encompass all of their best individual skills plus a whole new range of duets. They perform Broadway, pop and standards to exciting musical arrangements which always leaves audiences wanting more. They have combined forces to bring you a magical journey of song.

Andy Davis has been our Star Performer twice in recent years in our Star Entertainment Series. He's brought the house down both times with his great voice and charisma. Individually they are superb, together they are incredible.

CHAMPAGNE SUNDAY

Redwine & Kole
Sunday, November 22nd • 2:30 p.m.

Pacifica Forest Trace is delighted to welcome back internationally acclaimed vocalist Ruby Redwine and Veteran Broadway star Robert Kole.

Robert Kole started his amazing career by winning the Arthur Godfrey Talent Show on CBS Television. He was then chosen by Leonard Bernstein to sing the world premier of his opera Trouble in Tahiti at Brandeis University. Mr. Kole has appeared on Broadway in Top Banana with Phil Silvers, Wonderful Town with Kate Callan, John Murray Anderson Almanac with Harry Belafonte and Jonathan Winters, Plain and Fancy with Richard Dehr, Pajama Game with John Raitt and Mr. Wonderful with Sammy Davis, Jr.

Hal Prince picked him to be the lead in West Side Story, and he toured with the National Company for a year. Mr. Kole has appeared with Johnny Carson, Ed Sullivan, Mike Douglas, Dick Cavett and David Frost in their respective shows.

His lovely wife Ruby Redwine is truly an extraordinary and unique talent. At the age of 16 she won the scholarship (The Walter Damrosch Fellowship) in New York City to study French art songs, music and harmony at the world renowned L’Ecole de Beaux Arts in Fontainebleau, France. Later Ms. Redwine studied at the Mozarteum, in Salzburg, Austria, for three years. Since 1985 she has performed in critically acclaimed Liederabende in Germany, Austria, Holland, Belgium and France. Her musical style and artistic scope in combination with her extraordinarily rich and flexible voice have made her a favorite among the European “inner music circles.” Several years of appearing in many European musical productions have certainly rounded out her career and given her a musical versatility that few opera singers can claim. She is equally at home in musicals, operetta and opera, as well as stylish Broadway tunes.

Together Redwine and Kole will give you an afternoon musical treat with the ever-popular Moshe Katzberg. Revel in the festive atmosphere and visit with friends while enjoying lively tunes.

Our traditional Thanksgiving Feast will take place at an earlier time, from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m., in the Dining Room. Your early dining will enable our hard-working staff to spend some Thanksgiving time with their families as well. After dinner, at 6:00 p.m. come out to the Clubhouse Theater where we will make your Thanksgiving magical with master magician Gary Midnight. Note the early start for this amazing show! You can find out more about this exciting entertainer in our “Entertainment Spotlight” on page 3.

But that’s not all. If you are still up for more activity, come across to the TV Room after the show to see the beautiful holiday classic, An Old Fashioned Thanksgiving. The movie is based on the true story of Louisa May Alcott’s Little Women. Jacqueline Bisset stars in this special holiday-themed film. The management and staff of Forest Trace wish you all a very Happy Thanksgiving!

In our effort to make Thanksgiving special, we have arranged a great day of entertainment to be shared by you and your family.

We start off the day with the traditional viewing of the Macy’s Thanksgiving Day Parade on the big screen. Then, we offer an opportunity for you to engage in some much-needed exercise in advance of our huge holiday feast. Curtis will be here to give you a holiday workout beginning at 10:00 a.m.

At noon, you’ll want to head to the Lobby for a lunchtime musical treat with the ever-popular Moshe Katzberg. Revel in the festive atmosphere and visit with friends while enjoying lively tunes.

The management and staff of Forest Trace wish you all a very Happy Thanksgiving!
Thanksgiving is such a great time of the year. We are fortunate to have a holiday where we kick back for a couple of days and really focus on being grateful for what we have in our lives. Over the last couple of years I have written in this column about Thanksgiving being my favorite holiday of the year. As time has progressed, I now realized that being grateful for things should not be limited to one Thursday per year. It is something we should focus on every single day because at the very least, it will make us happier people. Unfortunately, I know all too well, it is not always easy for us to think this way.

I realized this year that my own family gathering will be down to three people. On a side note, I am not sure how I know how to cook for less than ten people, so I am looking at a lot of left overs! Now, I am very happy that my two oldest sons now have gainful employment and therefore will not be able to join us. I am thankful for that employment thing! But we are going to miss having them home. I’m not thankful for that! I am sure that this is an emotional experience we all can share in. So now, I find myself, in need of my own advice; let’s find those happy thoughts in all of this.

Let me tell you something Teddy Roosevelt once said: “Comparison is the thief of joy.” Don’t focus on what you don’t have and don’t focus on what your friends do have. Keeping this in mind, I am going to focus instead, on where I am, what I am doing well and who I am in this very moment. I am going to be thankful for just that.

Being thankful every day for the things I do should allow me to focus on what I bring to the world to create positive impact. So, maybe, I will buy a small roasted chicken for Thanksgiving. “Comparison is the thief of joy.” Don’t focus on what you don’t have and don’t focus on what your friends do have. Keeping this in mind, I am going to focus instead, on where I am, what I am doing well and who I am in this very moment. I am going to be thankful for just that.

Being thankful every day for the things I do should allow me to focus on what I bring to the world to create positive impact. So, maybe, I will buy a small roasted chicken for Thanksgiving. I now give you five things to say thank you for, today and every day:

1. Your family
2. Your friends
3. Connecting with others
4. Your ability to contribute to a greater good, and…
5. YOURSELF and YOUR strengths.

Remember, there are millions of people around the world who would love to have what we have, even for just a moment.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Magician and Illusionist Gary Midnight

Thursday, November 26th

6:00 p.m.

Pacifica Forest Trace has arranged some truly magical entertainment for your enjoyment after a lavish Thanksgiving meal. Gary Midnight is no ordinary magician that will pull a rabbit out of a hat...he offers you so much more! One of the most mind-blowing magicians in the country will be here with his amazing, fast-paced, jaw-dropping, and absolutely wild MAGICAL experience. Master Magician and Illusionist Gary Midnight is one of today’s most sought-after entertainers. He leaves audiences speechless with his amazing gifts of illusion and sleight-of-hand. Out of his magical mind comes the most amazing feats...dollar bills suddenly appear, levitate in midair and dance to music, then vanish in a burst of fire! Beautiful and colorful doves levitate in midair and dance to music, then vanish in a burst of fire! Beautiful and colorful doves arise out of nowhere. It promises to be a truly magical experience!
DEAR SUZY

"No birds, no bees, no flowers, no tree, no wonder, November!"

How clever but essentially a negative saying and aren’t we thankful to be here in South Florida where we have all of nature’s beauty without change.

The key word here is “thankful,” the theme for this month which celebrates Thanksgiving.

Let’s start with me, Suzy. First, I am thankful for the gift of life, the ability to see, hear, taste, and smell all things around me. To appreciate family, friends, and in general people. To experience the wonders of being alive! Next I am thankful for the gift of freedom. In this phonetic world I was born the same age as Anne Frank, need I say more.

Finally I am thankful for all that has been given me here at Pacifica Forest Trace! New friends, the pool, and especially SAMANTHA JOHNSTON — my friends are too numerous to mention, so I say farewell to all of you. It was a wonderful four years. I wish you all “good health and good living.” You have to know, “I did it my way.” An rotorv and goodbye until we meet again.

Happy Turkey Day everybody. —Love, Suzanne Juster

NOVEMBER EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

Fun with Horticulture

Tuesdays, November 3rd, 17th • 1:00 p.m.

Robert Bornstein is a registered trained professional horticultural therapist and holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Agriculture. For more than a decade, Robert has worked with residents at over one hundred senior living facilities, local municipalities, and government agencies. He has been featured in numerous local and regional newspaper and magazine articles and on local and national television programs.

Robert has developed a keen understanding of the positive relationship between horticultural therapy and the need of the individual’s body and spirit. His classes are always informative and enjoyable, come join him this month as he teaches you how to grow your own Creeping Charlie Plant on the 3rd and a class on flower arranging on the 17th. Also on the 3rd the “plant doctor” is in session, which means you can bring down your plants for Robert to tend to.

We’ve been having Fun with Horticulture here for almost two decades. Come find out why!

Exciting Video Programs

Check Calendar for Dates and Times

Last month we showed part one of Broadway Musical: A Jewish Legacy and everyone keeps asking when they will see part two. Watch for the sequel on Tuesday, November 8th, at 7:15 p.m. This is the first full documentary film to explore the phenomenon that, over the 50-year period of its development, the songs of the Broadway musical were created almost exclusively by Jewish Americans. Narrated by Joel Grey, the film features interviews with many of the most famous Jewish entertainers of our time.

Our second great video is the "Concert for the Americas: Frank Sinatra." This first-ever U.S. release of this 1982 concert proves that even at age 66, Francis Albert Sinatra was still the undisputed "Chairman Of The Board." Recorded in the Dominican Republic, this 90-minute epic performance features the legendary Buddy Rich on drums and a special guest appearance by guitarists Tony and Toto Mortola on a memorable rendition of "Send In The Clowns." Critics believe this to be one of the best live performances ever recorded.

HONORING AMERICANS

Veterans Day Tribute

Wednesday, November 11th

We are holding a very special tribute to our Forest Trace Veterans on Wednesday, November 11th, beginning at 11:00 a.m. Gather at the front entrance to raise the American Flag with the cadets from Hollywood Hills Military School. Then come across to the Theater where the ceremony will commence with the color guard at approximately 11:30 a.m. The Star Spangled Banner will be sung by the amazing baritone you all enjoyed with the Gold Coast Opera last month, William Stafford.

We have some special speakers including our very own Morty Geissler who has just returned from New York after being honored aboard an Honor Flight. Most importantly, you will see all of our Veterans up on stage as we pay homage to their service to America.

If you are a veteran who has not yet filled out the information sheet available at the Front Desk, please do so as soon as possible so that you may be included in our tribute. If any veterans still have their uniform or medals, this is the time to proudly wear them. We ask all our residents to wear red, white, and blue colors for this special occasion.

There will be an early dinner on this special holiday, served from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m. After the ceremony is over you are welcome to eat early or stay in the Lobby and enjoy live music while you enjoy a cocktail. The music and cocktails will continue until 4:30 p.m.

At the earlier time of 6:00 p.m., Forest Trace will present, direct from New York, the very beautiful Linda Miller. After the show please stick around for a wonderful video of Honor Flight. You’ll be able to see for yourself what Morty Geissler experienced.

Please stand up and salute our Veterans at these special events. We thank our servicemen and women for their sacrifice for our freedom.

A Special Invitation for Vets from “Our Kids”

We love the students from The Weinbaum Yeshiva High School. They are coming back for another visit on Tuesday, November 24th at 11:00 a.m. However, some of you will be seeing them much sooner. They have invited our Veterans for a special lunch with them at the school on Thursday, November 5th. Hopefully, all of our Veterans have signed up to go by now. If you somehow missed the invite, and would like to go, please contact Sandy at 954-572-4707. The lunch is open to Veterans who are willing to talk about their experiences with these very special students.

Linda Miller
Wednesday, Nov. 11th • 7:15 p.m.
Linda Miller has worked with great performers such as Tony Bennett, Dolly Gillies, Sarah Vaughan, Cole Porter, Shirley Bassey, Diana Ross, Joan Rivers and Al Martino among others. She has fronted prestigious big bands and jazz combos at elegant venues such as the White Horse and New York’s Rainbow Room. Linda is also an established actress with appearances on several TV shows including Law & Order, Hope & Faith, Just Shoot Me and At The World’s End. Her versatile singing has brought her around the world with smooth Jazz stylings in Spanish, Italian, French, Portuguese and Hebrew.

David Meulemans
Saturday, November 28th
7:15 p.m.
Welcome back the debonair and very talented David Meulemans as he grace our stage on the 28th. Classically trained, David is a popular leading man in the Florida’s musical theatre scene. His dramatic skills, as well as his emotionally charged singing makes him a sought after act that we’re sure you’ll enjoy.

Richie Shapiro
Saturday, November 29th
7:15 p.m.
Every time Richie Shapiro appears here, we get inundated with requests to bring him back. So your wish is our command! Richie will be entertaining you on Sunday, the 29th. Part of his success is because he plays so many different genres of music. Blues, classical, contemporary, folk, jazz, Latin, opera, pop, piaf, rag, rock, film instruments—you name it; he plays it and he plays it well! He also sings in Spanish, French, Portuguese and Italian. Not only is he a great pianist and singer but has also studied violin, clarinet, saxophone, classical guitar, accordion and flute. No wonder people think he’s great.

Book Review with Gloria
Sunday, November 1st • 7:15 p.m.
Join fascinating reviewer Gloria Shapiro for another intriguing selection, Passage To Power by Robert A. Caro. In this fourth volume of his ambitious, decades-long biography of JFK’s assassin, Lyndon Johnson finally reaches the White House. At 600-plus pages, it’s a brick of a book, but it reads at times like a novel. Its Greek tragedy. Caro’s version of JFK’s assassination is especially chilling, and the characters—not just LBJ, but the Kennedys and the power brokers of Washington—are downright Shakespearean. Lyndon Johnson was a fast vocalist and horrendous flautist, and it is doubtful that any writer will ever capture the arc of his triumph and ultimately tragic life so well again.

Nova Lifelong Learning
Tuesday, November 3rd • 11:00 a.m.
This month’s Nova Southeastern University Lifelong Learning Lecture addresses “Habits: How Did I Get Them and How Can I Get Rid of Them?” We all have habits that we might like to change but unless we recognize them, we can’t make changes. This lively discussion will make you think about yourself and motivate you to make needed changes that will lead to a happier life.

Betty Ross has had immeasurable influence on the lives of thousands of adults in South Florida and is known as a Life Enrichment Professional, having worked, think, and differently. Betty’s presentations are often referred to as “411 on Aging.” As a facilitator for residents of independent living communities and formerly with Broward County Elderly and Veterans Services, she has presented to more than 250 senior living communities.

Sterling University
Wednesday, November 4th, 18th • 10:45 a.m.
The ever-popular Professor Phil Leta is back twice during November with diverse yet interesting topics.

On a winter day in 1983, on the remote Outer Banks of North Carolina, two unknown brothers from Ohio, Wilbur and Orville Wright, changed the world. The age of flight had begun with the first heavier-than-air powered machine carrying a person from one place to another. By 1940, both bicycle mechanics, who had been the first to land a powered aircraft, were men of exceptional ability, unsuited determining and far-ranging intellectual curiosity.

On the 18th, Phil presents “The National Football League: King of American Sports.” Baseball may call itself America’s pastime and the NBA is televised around the world, but in the United States today the NFL (founded in the sales office of a Humungous dealership in Canton, Ohio, in 1920) is the king of professional sports. From sold out stadiums and huge television audiences, the NFL is the most popular sport in the world today. Come and see what it is all about.

Myrna Goldberger Lecture
Tuesday, November 10th • 11:00 a.m.
Myrna Goldberger is an educator, lecturer, writer, creative consultant and performer. She calls her sessions “edutainment.” Myrna has had over 50 years experience in education and educational entertainment. In her entertaining and informative way, she will share with you and inform of an audience of over 2,000 people using more than 60 courses as material.

With all the hype on the presidential candidates going on at the moment, our enlightening program on “Presidential Parks” should be a real winner! Learn all about the fringe benefits of being president—from the staff to Air Force One to Camp David to seeing first run movies free any time you wish.

Book Review with Goldie
Wednesday, November 25th • 11:00 a.m.
Join BFI book reviewer Goldie Witzrock as she examines Gifted Hands. In 1987, Dr. Benjamin Carson gained worldwide recognition for his part in the first successful separation of Siamese twins joined at the back of the head. The extremely complex and delicate operation, five months in the planning and 22 hours in the execution, involved a surgical plan that Carson helped initiate. He pioneered again, in a rare procedure known as hemispherectomy, giving children without hope a second chance, both bicycle mechanics, who had been the first to land a powered aircraft, were men of exceptional ability, unsuited determining and far-ranging intellectual curiosity.

Cultural Events Open Series
Saturday, November 7th • 7:15 p.m.
Opera actor and conductor Burton D. Fisher brings us another thrilling Opera Showcase on the 7th. Bizet’s irresistible charming opera, Les Pêcheurs de Perles (The Pearl Fishers), is set in ancient times on Ceylon, an island located off the southeast tip of India now known as Sri Lanka. The Pearl Fishers’ story deals with a love triangle: two Ceylonesen fishermen, Nadir and Zurga, who become infatuated with Leila, an entreprenuere beautiful Brahman priestess. In order to avoid a rivalry that would end their friendship they vow to extinguish their passion—both forevermore. Love for Leila. In a classic conflict of the spirit versus the flesh—or the sacred versus the profane—Leila becomes conflicted by her sacred vow of chastity and is unable to suppress her yearning for Nadir’s love. The Met Opera misconduct features Diana Damraus (Leila); Mathew Polonats (Nadir); and Marius Kwizene (Zurga).
