Touchmark is home ... on the Range!

(Helena, Mont.) – Dress in your western best and join the fun at a good old-fashioned barn dance and barbeque Thursday, April 21 at 5 p.m.

Staff and residents at Touchmark on Saddle Drive will transform the parking garage into a western barn, complete with a dance floor, hay bales, twinkle lights and all the trimmings. Attendees can feast on a traditional barbecue dinner of boneless ribs, coleslaw, cornbread and apple pie.

What hoedown isn't complete without a square dance? The Last Chance Square Dance Club will be on hand to call a few line and square dances while buckaroo helpers from St. Andrew's School will mingle with guests and even dance a bit, if asked.

“We invite folks to ride on over and join us for an evening of finger-lickin' barbecue, lots of hee-haws and a fun time kickin' up their boots to some lively music,” says Touchmark Life Enrichment/Wellness Director Nanette Whitman-Holmes.

The cost is $12 per person, and RSVPs are required (406-449-4900). Touchmark is located at 915 Saddle Drive.
