Touchmark to host Spring into Art & Collectibles Show April 23

VANCOUVER, Wash. — The nature-based work of Sharon Brannan and Jim Mills will be among the items featured at the April 23 Spring Into Art & Collectibles” show at Vancouver’s Touchmark at Fairway Village retirement community.

Both Touchmark residents, they will be on hand from 1 to 5 p.m. joining other residents displaying their artwork as well as prized collectibles. The event will also include wine, chocolate and live music by individuals playing a harp and koto, a Japanese stringed instrument.

Brannan, 71, is retired from the Oregon Department of Veterans Affairs. Her current artwork involves stained glass, gourds and dried plants.

Mills, 78, is a retired welder. He carves animals and whimsical creatures out of wood.

The focus on the natural world is well-timed to Earth Day as well as Touchmark’s April focus on the environmental dimension of wellness. Touchmark incorporates all seven dimensions of wellness in its Full Life Wellness & Life Enrichment Program, which has received national and international recognition.

There is no charge for the event. RSVPS are requested by April 22 by calling 360-254-2866. Touchmark is located at 2911 SE Village Loop.

Touchmark at Fairway Village is a full-service retirement community offering a wide range of retirement homes, lifestyle options and services, including an on-site health and fitness club for people age 40 and up. More information is available at Touchmark.com.
