Touchmark welcomes public to viewing of “The Age of Love”

BISMARCK, N.D. – The public is invited to a screening of “The Age of Love,” a popular documentary that features a group of seniors who take part in a speed-dating event for 70- to 90-year olds. This is the first time the film will be presented in Bismarck.

The movie will be shown at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, May 24, at Touchmark on West Century. There is no charge, but to ensure adequate seating for this relevant film, members of the public who plan to attend are asked to RSVP by calling 701-323-7000.

A panel discussion following the film will include “The Age of Love” filmmaker Steven Loring via Skype and Marlene Wegner, a local senior dating coach. Participants will discuss the film, dating and relationships later in life.

“The Age of Love” breaks down stereotypes and empowers people who are single to seek new companionship. The film helps people of all ages gain a better understanding of the complex realities of senior dating and relationships.

According to Touchmark Life Enrichment/Wellness Director Amy Miller, the film will be a learning experience for the audience. “Seniors experience the same insecurities and fears when beginning new relationships later in life that younger people do when they begin dating.”

Touchmark is located at 1000 West Century Avenue.
