Wyakin Warrior Foundation benefits from Touchmark event

MERIDIAN, Idaho – More than 70 classic cars and hundreds of people gathered on the Touchmark lawn to raise $2,000 for the Wyakin Warrior Foundation on Father’s Day weekend. The money was raised through ticket sales for a prize drawing and food sales featuring a full barbecue lunch.

“The generous donation made possible by Touchmark is so critically important to the Wyakin mission,” says Wyakin Executive Director Brent Taylor. “The funds will directly benefit wounded and injured veterans in the form of professional development opportunities, mentoring programs, and financial support for emergent needs – allowing our warriors to maintain their focus on the end-goal of professional and personal success.”

Home to hundreds of dads, grandfathers and great-grandfathers, Touchmark celebrates all dads with a classic car show to honor them and their contributions. This year the event featured a prize drawing for a Traeger Grill, bounce house, face painting and a 1959 fire truck perfect for family pictures.

“We are able to entertain a large crowd on the Touchmark lawn, and the classic car show is just one way we engage with our surrounding community,” says Touchmark Executive Director Matt Hoskin. “We are so thankful for the attendance by the owners of the classic cars and the donations provided to benefit the Wyakin Warrior Foundation.”

The 2017 Touchmark Father’s Day Weekend Classic Car Show will take place on Saturday, June 17, 2017.
