Series on retirement planning to be held at Touchmark at Fairway Village

VANCOUVER, Wash. — When planning for the future, there are a lot of details to consider. Issues such as retirement, trusts and estate planning can seem overwhelming. To help address these issues, Touchmark is offering a three-part series in October and November.

The first talk will be Thursday, Oct. 6. Attorney-at-Law Margaret Phelan will present “7 Ways Trusts Can Save You Money and Protect Your Spouse, House and Family from the Government.”

In the Oct. 20 and Nov. 3 talks, Phelan will share practical information that addresses long-term planning for older adults.

All presentations will be held at 1:30 p.m. at Touchmark, 2911 S.E. Village Loop in Vancouver. There is no charge to attend, but seating is limited. To RSVP, people can call Touchmark at 360-254-2866. Light refreshments will be served.

Phelan is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and regularly contributes articles to the “Senior Messenger.” Her local practice focuses on elder law.
