North Dakota Ag Commissioner presents to seniors

BISMARCK, N.D. – The public is invited to hear Agriculture Commissioner Doug Goehring speak at Touchmark on West Century Tuesday, Oct. 18, at 10 a.m. He will be giving a current state of affairs of North Dakota's agriculture industry. Many Touchmark residents held careers in agriculture, the state's biggest industry. Commissioner Goehring will share information about new trends and challenges agriculture now faces. He will also explain factors contributing to the slowing market for agriculture in the upper Midwest.

Touchmark is located at 1000 West Century Avenue. For complete details or questions, call Touchmark Life Enrichment Director Amy Miller at 701-323-7000.
