Party brings Oktoberfest to Edmond neighborhood

EDMOND, Okla. – Local residents can get a taste of Germany and more when attending this party. Craft beer, German food and an Oktoberfest atmosphere come to Touchmark at Coffee Creek's Parkview neighborhood in Edmond Oct. 20.

The party is 4:30 - 6:30 p.m. at the Parkview Gazebo. The community is invited to tour the homes, meet some of the neighborhood's residents and sample fine craft beers and German food. Music will be provided by a six-piece polka band, The Bohemian Knights.

RSVP by Oct. 18 for this no-cost event by calling (405) 340-1975.

Also, 6 - 8 p.m. on Oct. 25, Touchmark's main lobby will be open to the community for live music and dancing to Gary Johnson's four-piece band and a fun celebration of German culture. Light appetizers will be served. RSVP is appreciated by Oct. 24. (Lederhosen and dirndl are optional.)

Award-winning Touchmark Executive Chef Jeff Waddle will provide a sampling of German food for both events.

A full-service retirement community, Touchmark at Coffee Creek offers a wide range of homes and lifestyle options and is located just off Covell. Touchmark is part of the Coffee Creek 638-acre planned residential development, which includes a golf course, recreational centers and walking and biking trails for Coffee Creek homeowners.
