Touchmark announces team of retirement counselors

PORTLAND, Ore. — Jennifer Miller, Kate Rollins and Tiffany Thurston have been appointed retirement counselors for Touchmark in the West Hills. Scheduled to open fall 2017, the new full-service retirement community will offer unparalleled views, a vineyard, clubhouse, convenient location to downtown Portland and much more.

Miller spent several years as an Executive Assistant for the Portland Clinic providing support to administration, managing calendars and on-call schedules and coordinating events and meetings. She also worked for Crestview Convalescent and Rehabilitation Center as a social service and discharge planner.

Rollins has 10 years of experience in sales and management with companies that included Burkhart Dental Supply, Philips Sonicare and GlaxoSmithKline. Prior to this, she taught high-school honors science. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from Gonzaga University, was a Graduate Fellow of Chemistry at Georgetown University and holds a Masters of Education from Marymount University.

Before coming to Touchmark, Thurston spent over 10 years with Focus Commercial Property as a manager where she helped to negotiate contracts, oversaw operations and maintenance and worked with prospective clients. She holds several managerial awards.
