Seniors start celebration early with St. Patrick's Day Pub Crawl

BISMARCK, N.D. — Before downtown Bismarck is crawling with evening crowds sporting everything green on St. Patrick's Day, Touchmark residents and guests will be launching its annual St. Patrick's Day Pub Crawl. This year, the event is packed with even more celebration of Irish culture.

On March 17, buses full of Touchmark residents and their guests will be headed for Main Street at 11 a.m. First stop: the Blarney Stone. The restaurant will be serving an authentic Irish meal for lunch. Next: Peacock Alley, where chefs have created a special dessert for the occasion. Celebrations will continue back at Touchmark on West Century, where musician and fan-favorite Darrell Brackel will get feet tapping as residents enjoy green beer and pretzels. The full day of fun wraps up with an Irish dinner buffet.

Although space is limited, there are a few spots remaining. Transportation is provided; individuals pay their costs during the pub crawl. The Irish buffet at Touchmark is $15. To RSVP, call 701-323-7000.

“Our St. Patrick's Day Pub Crawl is always a favorite, and this year we are making the celebration even more exciting,” says Amy Miller, Touchmark Life Enrichment Director. “Along with all of the fun, it's important on this day to honor the Irish culture and spirit.”
