Irish concert added to St. Paddy's Day Pub Crawl lineup

FARGO, N.D. – The annual St. Paddy's Day pub crawl by seniors from Touchmark at Harwood Groves will include something new this year: a special performance by local Irish band Poitin. Sponsored by Touchmark and the Hotel Donaldson, the concert is open to the public to enjoy at no charge.

The concert will be held at the Hotel Donaldson from 2 to 4 p.m. on Friday, March 17 (St. Patrick's Day). The band will play two 50-minute sets of authentic Irish music to get the crowd dancing.

“We invite others to join our busload of green-clad seniors, who will be finishing their pub crawl of local hot spots,” says Touchmark Life Enrichment/Wellness Director Anne-Marie Fitz. “Along with the entertainment, enjoy drinks and traditional Irish food with a HoDo twist while socializing with friends and celebrating this great holiday!”

Since 2001, Poitin has been touring the region, playing their Irish/Celtic-inspired music to crowds of all sizes. The six-piece band is known for traditional dance music and ballads. For more information, visit www.poitinband.com.
