Touchmark appoints new Executive Director

SPOKANE, Wash. — Touchmark, a company that develops and operates retirement communities in the United States and Canada, is excited to announce the appointment of a new Executive Director to its award-winning full-service retirement community Touchmark on South Hill.

Dave Cox will oversee all aspects of Touchmark on South Hill, which includes nearly 370 residents and 275 staff. The full-service retirement community consists of cottages and apartment homes as well as services that span independent and assisted living, memory care, home health, home care, skilled nursing and rehabilitation services as well as Touchmark's robust health and fitness program.

Cox brings a wealth of experience to his new position. Prior to joining Touchmark, Cox served four years as CEO of Rehabilitation Hospital of the Northwest in Post Falls, Idaho. While there, he oversaw the construction and opening of a 30 bed-freestanding acute rehabilitation hospital and provided leadership for 110 employees. Before that, Cox directed Outpatient Services and the Pain Management Program at St. Luke's Rehabilitation Institute in Spokane, Washington, for nearly 10 years. His career also includes 15 years as an occupational therapist.

Cox holds a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Therapy from the University of Washington and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Carroll College
