Classic Car Show celebrates fathers of all ages Event open to the public at no charge

MERIDIAN, Idaho – Gather your family and friends for the Touchmark Father’s Day Weekend Classic Car Show on Saturday, June 17. Open to the public at no charge. Family activities include balloons, face painting, a 1959 fire truck (great for pictures), a patrol car from the Meridian Police Department and music. Attendees also can enter to win a Traeger grill.

Saturday, June 17, 2017

10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Open to the public; no charge

Touchmark at Meadow Lake Village

4037 East Clocktower Lane (nearest cross streets are Eagle and Franklin roads)

“The car show gives us a chance to celebrate the hundreds of fathers, grandfathers, and great-grandfathers living throughout the area,” says Touchmark Executive Director Matthew Hoskin. “We appreciate the participation of the many car owners who share their cars, and we’re pleased to benefit the Wyakin Foundation.”

Cars will be parked on the lawn surrounding the Touchmark lake, and people can enjoy the cars along with a full barbecue lunch. Menu items include coleslaw, chips and fruit. All proceeds benefit the Wyakin Foundation.

Pork ribs $7

Pulled pork sandwiches $4

Hot dogs $2

Ice cream cones, lemonade and water for $1.
