Live music and local vendors at Touchmark's Street Market Festival on June 27

Edmonton, Alberta –Get a jumpstart on outdoor summer festivals! Food trucks and local vendors will be on-site at Touchmark at Wedgewood for a fun-filled Street Market Festival happening June 27 from 10 a.m. to 2:30 pm.

Colourful displays from Scentsy, Sweet Soles, Lee Conrad The Draw Guy, Glitter Tattoos, Magnolia & Vine Jewelry and many more vendors will be on hand with their wares and services.

Food trucks will also be on location, including The Popcorn Shoppe, The Dog serving gourmet hot dogs and poutine and Beaver Tails Edmonton, with its fried dough confections.

Festival goers will also enjoy the sounds of popular, local entertainer Button Box Bill playing the guitar and accordion while they shop.

There is no charge to attend the event, which will be held at Touchmark at Wedgewood, 18333 Lessard Road NW.

“This festival is a great lead up to Canada’s 150th anniversary celebration and the summer festival season,” says Joan Drake, Touchmark Life Enrichment/Wellness Director. “We’re highlighting some fantastic local products and talent, and there’s plenty of things to see and do. Truly, there’s something for everyone to enjoy!”
