Touchmark announces new Executive Director

MERIDIAN, Idaho – Kent Mulkey has been named the new Executive Director of Touchmark at Meadow Lake Village. He takes over the position from Matthew Hoskin, who has been promoted to Vice President, Regional Director of Operations for Touchmark.

Mulkey brings nearly 20 years of experience serving as regional and executive directors for several retirement communities in Colorado and California. Most recently, he led Covenant Village of Colorado, a 239-home continuing care retirement community. Prior to that, he was Regional Director of Sales and Customer Experience with Keystone Senior Management Services, overseeing six communities and two in development. Additionally, he served as Executive Director for one of the communities.

A certified Inspired to Serve trainer (the Disney-based customer experience training program), Mulkey is also a contributing writer for “Senior Housing Forum” and other publications as well as an accomplished public speaker with more than 750 presentations. Prior to entering the field of senior living, he spent 15 years in full-time vocational ministry.

Mulkey received his Bachelor of Arts in Education from California State University and a Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology from Denver Seminary. He is a certified assisted living administrator and was active in the board of directors for the Colorado Assisted Living Association.

In his new role, Hoskin will oversee five of Touchmark’s 13 communities in the U.S. and Alberta, Canada. Based in Touchmark’s company headquarters in Beaverton, Oregon, he will continue to oversee the operations of Touchmark at Meadow Lake Village and will be responsible for Touchmark communities in Portland, Oregon; Bismarck and Fargo, North Dakota; and Sioux Falls South Dakota. During his 10 years in Meridian, the community added five lodges, assisted living and memory care services and a full Health & Fitness Club open to people 50 years and older.
