Touchmark hires Keri Donovan as Life Enrichment/Wellness Director for new West Hills location

Portland, Ore. – Touchmark, an award-winning developer, builder and operator of full-service retirement communities, has named Keri Donovan the Life Enrichment/Wellness Director for the new West Hills Touchmark community opening by summer 2018.

Donovan joins Touchmark after a nearly nine-year career at the Multnomah Athletic Club, where she advanced from Fitness/Gymnastics Department assistant to Wellness Supervisor. While there, she was responsible for executing successful life enrichment events as well as creating the Club's first award-winning wellness program in 2015.

A certified Wellness Coach, Level 1 (Advocate), Donovan also is certified as a Group Fitness Instructor and Personal Trainer from the American Council on Exercise. She holds a degree in Journalism and Technical Communication from Colorado State University.

“Living the Full Life isn't just a concept, it is the Touchmark culture,” says Donovan. “It is the way we show up, and the way we do business. I am excited to be part of a team that is passionate and energetic about guaranteeing residents are living their best lives.”

Multitalented, Donovan served as chief cinematographer for the feature documentary Chasing Sarasota. The feature-length film tells the story about an Ultimate Frisbee team.

About Touchmark in the West Hills
