Meet Jeanne O'hara

Jeanne enjoys "face timing" with friends & family, reading medical thrillers & is looking forward to relearning the piano.

Jeanne was born in New Orleans but didn't stay long, as she would soon assume the traveling life of an Army brat. At 15 she entered Tulane University, but by 18 she was swept off her feet by Arthur. The two soon married and started the large family of 7 they had always dreamed of. Arthur's career as a Construction Engineer kept them relocating frequently. Once the children were school-aged, Jeanne went back to school to complete her Bachelor's in Psychology and counseling at Syracuse. In her 40s, she started her career in Health Care Administration focusing on Dementia Care. Jeanne attributes her good health to her active lifestyle. She and her family enjoyed running marathons, racquetball, volleyball and at one time Jeanne was a champion arm wrestler. Jeanne has traveled the globe to Italy, Russia, Germany, France, Sweden, Iraq & the Galapagos Islands, etc.
