11th annual Touchmark Car Show & Barbecue draws 2,000; raises $5,000 for charities

VANCOUVER, Wash. — The 11th annual Touchmark Car Show & Barbecue was successful on all counts with more than 150 cars showing, 1,500 attending and $5,000 raised for local nonprofit organizations benefitting seniors and veterans.

“Thank you to everybody who participated,” said Kellie Wagnild, Resident Relations Manager at Touchmark. “We are so grateful for the continued support and commitment to this event and the many people who benefit from services offered by the Alzheimer’s Association, Clark County Food Bank, Parkinson’s Association and Veterans of Clark County.”

Wagnild has coordinated every car show since its inception, seeing it grow every year.

To date, $35,000 in donations have been raised to benefit local nonprofits.

Located at 2911 S.E. Village Loop in Vancouver’s Fisher’s Landing neighborhood, Touchmark at Fairway Village is a full-service retirement community offering a wide range of homes, lifestyle options and services. An on-site Health & Fitness Club featuring indoor pool and spa, state-of-the-art equipment and certified fitness professionals is open to anyone over 50.
