WW II era music to showcase patriotism at concert in Bismarck

BISMARCK, N.D. — A family-friendly concert on August 23 will feature the “Letters from Home” duo of Courtney Groves and Erinn Diaz performing a tribute in honor of our military, both past and present. The musical style is World War II era, showcasing high-energy harmonies and tunes sure to interest all. Touchmark on West Century will host the “Letters from Home” concert, and there is no charge.

The outdoor concert will be held at Touchmark on Thursday, August 23 at 6:30 p.m. Touchmark is located at 1000 West Century Avenue. Please bring a lawn chair to use. There is no need to RSVP. For more information about the concert, please call 701-323-7000.

“We appreciate veterans and active-duty military personnel for all their sacrifices that protect our freedom and keep us safe,” says Destiny Glaser, Touchmark Life Enrichment/Wellness Director. “The “Letters from Home” concert is sure to be a fun, patriotic event for all!”

“Letters from Home” was started in 2010 in North Carolina. Since then, the energetic show featuring songs, tap dancing and shared memories has toured in over 30 states and on cruise ships. In 2017, a documentary produced by David Hardy for OurState Television won the Emmy Award for Best Magazine Documentary.
