WW II era music to showcase patriotism at concert in Fargo

FARGO, N.D. — A family-friendly concert on August 24 will feature the “Letters from Home” duo of Courtney Groves and Erinn Diaz performing a tribute in honor of our military, both past and present. The musical style is World War II era, showcasing high-energy harmonies and tunes sure to interest all. Touchmark at Harwood Groves will host the “Letters from Home” concert, and there is no charge.

The outdoor concert will be held at Touchmark on Friday, August 24 at 3 p.m. Touchmark is located at 1200 Harwood Drive South. Please bring a lawn chair to use. There is no need to RSVP. For more information about the concert, please call 701-476-1200.

“The ‘Letters from Home’ concert is a fun, patriotic event for everyone,” says Anne-Marie Fitz, Touchmark Life Enrichment/Wellness Director. “It is a wonderful show that honors both veterans and active-duty military personnel, who have made so many sacrifices to keep us safe and protect our freedom.”

“Letters from Home” was started in 2010 in North Carolina. Since then, the energetic show featuring songs, tap dancing and shared memories has toured in over 30 states and on cruise ships. In 2017, a documentary produced by David Hardy for Our State Television won the Emmy Award for Best Magazine Documentary.
