WW II era music to showcase patriotism at concert in Helena

HELENA, Mont. — A family-friendly outdoor concert on August 20 will feature the “Letters from Home” duo of Courtney Groves and Erinn Diaz performing a tribute in honor of our military, both past and present. The musical style is World War II era, showcasing high-energy harmonies and tunes sure to interest all. Touchmark on Saddle Drive will host the “Letters from Home” concert, and there is no charge.

The outdoor concert will be held at Touchmark on Monday, August 20 at 7 p.m. Touchmark is located at 915 Saddle Drive. Please bring a lawn chair to use. There is no need to RSVP. For more information about the concert, please call 406-449-4900.

“The ‘Letters from Home’ concert is a fun, patriotic event for everyone,” says Nanette Whitman-Holmes, Touchmark Life Enrichment/Wellness Director. “It is a wonderful show that honors both veterans and active-duty military personnel, who have made so many sacrifices to keep us safe and protect our freedom.”

“Letters from Home” was started in 2010 in North Carolina. Since then, the energetic show featuring songs, tap dancing and shared memories has toured in over 30 states and on cruise ships. In 2017, a documentary produced by David Hardy for Our State Television won the Emmy Award for Best Magazine Documentary.
