

Tim Cross

Executive Director
Touchmark at Fairway Village

As Executive Director, Tim oversees all aspects of the full-service retirement community, including apartment and single-family homes, independent and assisted living, memory care, the Touchmark Health & Fitness Club, Rehabilitation & Aquatic Therapy, and Home Health & Home Care.

Tim has more than 20 years of experience in banking, leadership and relationship management, having served as a Vice President with different banks over two decades. Prior to Touchmark, he served as Vice President of Business Development at Meadows Bank. Over his career, he headed bank branches and commercial banking teams.

Tim earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Warner Pacific University and graduated from the University of Washington's Pacific Coast Banking School graduate management education program.

A Vancouver resident since 2002, Tim has been active in the community, including volunteering and serving on a number of boards. His community involvement was recognized five years ago when the Vancouver Business Journal named him one of its Accomplished and Under 40 citizens. Currently, he serves as Secretary on the Share Board Executive Committee as well as serving on the Finance Committee. He also is a member of the Leadership Clark County Board and has been a mentor for the program since graduating in 2011. He has also mentored students from Washington State University's Mentor and Analysis Program since 2011.

Away from work, Tim enjoys spending time with his wife and three sons hiking, traveling, and just hanging out and watching movies.
