“This Month In History” DECEMBER

1907: On New Year’s Eve, a ball decorated with 100 lightbulbs is lowered down a flagpole over New York City’s Times Square. The ball drop has been featured in the annual celebration ever since.

1918: In the first official visit by a U.S. president to Europe, Woodrow Wilson travels to France for World War I peace negotiations.

1924: Astronomer Edwin Hubble announces his discovery of the existence of galaxies outside the Milky Way. The Hubble Space Telescope was named in his honor.

1941: America enters World War II after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

1962: The first observance of Kwanzaa takes place in Los Angeles. The seven-day holiday celebrates African heritage.

1970: Congress authorizes the creation of a new dollar coin depicting President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

1982: Gabriel Garcia Marquez is awarded the Nobel Prize in literature. The Colombian writer is best known for his 1967 novel “One Hundred Years of Solitude.”

1990: British computer scientist Tim Berners-Lee demonstrates his information-sharing system that would become the World Wide Web.

2001: Italy’s Leaning Tower of Pisa reopens to the public after 11 years and $27 million in work to fortify its famous lean.

2017: “Star Wars: The Last Jedi,” the eighth installment in the space fantasy series, premieres. The film’s $1 billion in ticket sales made it the year’s highest-grossing film.
