Resident Spotlight - Linda Lake

Linda was born in L.A. near Hollywood, Ca, close to the end of the Great Depression. Like many kids at the time, she was taken from studio to studio to be the next movie star. It never happened. Then came WWII and things on the West coast got better. Jobs for all. California was a great place to grow up then. College was free & so were the flying lessons. She met the love of her life and four weeks later they were engaged & their great adventure began.

Bob was in the budding TV industry so their first move was to Reno. Linda worked in a casino and Bob covered the 1960 Winter Olympics. Next Sacramento, Ca, to work for CBS & have dinner with Governor Pat Brown. During this time, Linda & Bob had three kids. She was a busy person. Next stop Alaska. They just settled in when the largest (9.2) & longest (5 min.) earthquake in modern history happened. Bob was there to cover it for CBS. Linda was in the right spot to take possession of a kindergarten & daycare center. This was Linda's first business. Five years later, they moved on. This time it was to Huntsville, AL. Linda was one of the first five people to integrate a black college & her family had the chance to visit the Redstone Rocket Center & touch the sister ship of the Saturn V that went to the moon a year late. Then it was off again, this time to KC, MO. Linda finally finished her teaching degree & worked in her chosen field for the next ten years. With the kids in college they moved again, this time to Branson, MO, where Linda worked in middle school special needs program for the next 15 years. During this time, Linda & Bob took up SCUBA diving and spent summers under water. Retirement came, but they were not ready, so they opened the only dry cleaners in Branson. The clientele was the Branson shows and all their fancy costumes. The next move was to live near the kids & grandchildren. This was 3 years each in KC, MO, New Mexico, & Texas. Last summer, Linda had the chance to visit Europe with her daughter & her family. Linda said "That was great fun. With the time left to me, I'm not sure where I will go next. Maybe Peru?"
