Resident Spotlight - Johnnie Mae Dixon

Johnnie Mae Dixon was born in Tallahassee, Florida. Later, she moved to Orlando, where she met and married the love of her life, Jeremiah Dixon (Deceased).

With her husband, who retired after twenty years in the US Army, she traveled overseas and all over the United States. Johnnie Mae retired from the Pentagon, in Washington, D.C., where she worked as a telephone operator.

Johnnie Mae is the mother of seven children; four girls and three boys (her oldest son is deceased). She has ten grandchildren, 16+ great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

She instilled the importance of an education early in her children's lives and is very proud of the 6 Masters, 10 Bachelors and 2 Associates degrees that they have earned.

She loves her children very much and is always there to support them.

Before she lost her ability to communicate words, Johnnie Mae loved attending church regularly (where she wore the most beautiful hats).

Her hobbies included cooking, playing cards, bowling and camping with her family. She also enjoyed making ceramic figurines, collecting oil paintings, traveling and spending time with her dear friends from her church family.

Johnnie Mae has lived at Parsons House Frisco for four years and loves the fact that she has made many new friends here.
